WAIKATO INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY UNDERGRADUATE AWARD

The Waikato Graduate Women Charitable Trust offers to women students enrolled at the Waikato Institute of Technology awards of $1000 each annually, subject to the availability of funds.

Closing Date: 30 April

Regulations for the Award

1. The name of the award shall be the Waikato Institute of Technology Award.
2. The applicants for the award must be women students enrolled full-time in the final year of a first degree programme offered by the Waikato Institute of Technology which requires three years or more of full time study to complete. Students may themselves apply for the Awards, or may be nominated by the Heads of School or another senior academic staff member of the department. All applicants must complete the formal application form.
3. The Award shall be awarded primarily on academic merit and demonstration of commitment. Applications shall require the recommendation of the Head of School or another senior academic staff member of the School.
4. Application forms will be available from Student Experience (Scholarships) of the Waikato Institute of Technology. Applications must include:
  - a) the completed application form;
  - b) a certified copy of the applicant's current academic transcript;
  - c) a written statement of up to 200 words on the benefit the applicant hopes to obtain from the Award.
5. All applications must be submitted to Student Experience (Scholarships) at the Waikato Institute of Technology, who shall forward applications to the Awards Committee, P O Box 148, Hamilton, by 15 May.
6. The Awards Committee shall administer the Award. The committee's decision is final.
7. If, in the opinion of the Committee, applicants are not of acceptable standard, no Award shall be made.
8. The number of awards shall be subject to
  - a) availability of funds
  - b) standard of applicants.
9. The Award winners shall be announced by the end of June of the year applications are made.
